About Photosensitive Seizures

A very small percentage of people may experience a seizure when exposed to certain visual images, including flashing lights or patterns that may appear in video games. Even people who have no history of seizures or epilepsy may have an undiagnosed condition that can cause these "photosensitive epileptic seizures" while watching video games.

These seizures may have a variety of symptoms, including lightheadedness, altered vision, eye or face twitching, jerking or shaking of arms or legs, disorientation, confusion, or momentary loss of awareness. Seizures may also cause loss of consciousness or convulsions that can lead to injury from falling down or striking nearby objects.

Immediately stop playing and consult a doctor if you experience any of these symptoms. Parents should watch for or ask their children about the above symptoms — children and teenagers are more likely than adults to experience these seizures.

The risk of photosensitive epileptic seizures may be reduced by sitting farther from the television screen, using a smaller television screen, playing in a well-lit room, and not playing when you are drowsy or fatigued.

If you or any of your relatives have a history of seizures or epilepsy, consult a doctor before playing.

Other Important Health and Safety Information The Xbox Instruction Manual contains important health and safety information that you should read and understand before using this software.

Avoid Damage to Your Television

Do not use with certain televisions. Some televisions, especially front- or rear-projection types, can be damaged if any video games, including Xbox games, are played on them. Static images presented during the normal course of game play may "burn in" to the screen, causing a permanent shadow of the static image to appear at all times, even when video games are not being played. Similar damage may occur from static images created when placing a video game on hold or pause. Consult your television owner's manual to determine if video games can be played safely on your set. If you are unable to find this information in the owner's manual, contact your television dealer or the manufacturer to determine if video games can be played safely on your set.

Unauthorized copying, reverse engineering, transmission, public performance, rental, pay for play, or circumvention of copy protection is strictly prohibited.

GETTING STARTED

Using the Xbox™ Video Game System

1. Set up your Xbox video game system by following the instructions in the Xbox Instruction Manual.
2. Press the power button and the status indicator light will light up.
3. Press the eject button and the disc tray will open.
4. Place the Godzilla™: Destroy All Monsters Melee disc on the disc tray with the label facing up and close the disc tray.
5. Follow on-screen instructions and refer to this manual for more information about playing the Godzilla™: Destroy All Monsters Melee game.

Avoiding Damage to Discs or the Disc Drive

To avoid damage to discs or the disc drive:

- Insert only Xbox-compatible discs into the disc drive.
- Never use oddly shaped discs, such as star-shaped or heart-shaped discs.
- Do not leave a disc in the Xbox console for extended periods when not in use.
- Do not move the Xbox console while the power is on and a disc is inserted.
- Do not apply labels, stickers, or other foreign objects to discs.

Using the Xbox Controller

1. Connect the Xbox Controller to any controller port on the front of the Xbox console. For multiple players, connect additional controllers to available controller ports.
2. Insert any expansion devices (for example, Xbox Memory Units) into controller expansion slots as appropriate.
3. Follow on-screen instructions and refer to this manual for more information about using the Xbox Controller to play the Godzilla™: Destroy All Monsters Melee game.

Connect to Xbox Live

Important! Before using this product, read the Xbox Instruction Manual for important safety information and health warnings.

Step 1: Connect

To connect your Xbox console directly to broadband, see diagram A. Or, to share your broadband connection with a PC, see diagram B.

For more details and other home networking options, including Internet connection sharing, see www.xbox.com/live.

A. Direct Connection

B. Shared Connection

Step 2: Go Live

Important! Xbox Live™ is a subscription service. You will need a subscription code to set up an Xbox Live account and play online. To find out how to get a subscription code, visit your local retailer or see www.xbox.com/live.

You'll need to set up an Xbox Live account to play games online. Here's how:

1. Insert an Xbox Live Starter Kit disc or game disc into the disc tray. Check game packaging to see if the game supports Xbox Live play.
2. From within the game, select the option for Xbox Live.

At this point, the Xbox console will try to go online. If it works, create your Xbox Live account by following the instructions on screen and entering your subscription code when prompted.

If the Xbox console can't go online automatically, you'll get an error message. Go on to Step 3.

Step 3: Configure (if necessary)

If you can't go online automatically, use Network Setup in the Xbox Dashboard to enter some network settings. You may need to enter information such as a host name, a MAC address, or an ISP user name and password. Contact your broadband service provider if you don't have this information. Once you have the information, enter it in the Xbox Dashboard.

Need more help?

Should you have any problems connecting to the Xbox Live service, do not attempt to take apart, service, or modify the Xbox console or peripherals in any way. Doing so could present the risk of serious injury or death from electric shock or fire and will also void your warranty. For additional assistance see www.xbox.com/live or call the Customer Support number:

Move

Both the left thumbstick and directional pad move your monster around.

Aim

The right thumbstick controls your monster's head. When firing a Projectile Attack, aim with the right thumbstick. Holding down the right trigger aims automatically at flying targets.

Punch

Press the A button to punch an opponent. While standing still, press the A button to attack with a quick jab punch. While walking or running toward an opponent, press the A button to attack with a harder, slower punch.

Block

Press the Y button to block all attacks except sweeps. Press the left trigger to duck while blocking. Monsters ducking while blocking will block sweep attacks, but will be vulnerable to overhead attacks. Both blocks reduce the damage taken from energy weapons by half, and also prevent knockdowns.

Run/Duck

Press the left trigger while moving to move faster. Monsters face nearby opponents automatically unless the left trigger is pressed.

While standing still, press the left trigger to duck. This enables most monsters to avoid Projectile Attacks (unless the opponent targets with the right thumbstick).

Jump

Press the right trigger to jump in any direction, or straight up.

Fly

Some monsters can fly. For these, press and hold the right trigger to make your monster fly. Note: Flying drains energy.

Grab

Use the White button or A button + X button to Grab. This lifts an opponent over your monster's head, giving you the opportunity to throw it with any of your three throws. You must throw the opponent quickly using the White button (or A button), X button or B button, otherwise your monster will tire and drop the opponent back to the ground.

When you are near a flashing red building, and out of range of another monster, your monster may pick up and throw the entire building.

If your monster is held in a grab, you can mash buttons to be dropped more quickly. If you are tired, you can also mash buttons to shake off fatigue.

Fire Weapon

Press and hold the Black button to charge your monster's primary beam weapon; release the Black button to fire. Charging increases the power of the weapon as well as the duration of the blast. Flying monsters may access their beam weapon in the air by using the Black button.

In addition to a primary beam weapon, many monsters have a secondary projectile weapon. Tap the Black button to fire the projectile weapon. Secondary weapons require a lot of energy and won't function without the proper energy level.

Mechagodzilla™ and Mecha-King Ghidorah™ use ammo for their secondary weapons, rather than energy.

Hedorah™, the smog monster, randomly enters any arena at any point in the game. While Hedorah™ flies around, the pollutants left in its path make it difficult for monsters to recharge their Energy Bars. Hedorah™ will eventually evaporate or you can attack with a beam weapon to vanquish Hedorah™ immediately.

View Player Number

Sometimes the action is so fast and furious that it's easy to lose track of which monster you're controlling — especially in 3- and 4-player games when two or more players are playing as the same monster. In multiplayer games, at the beginning of each round, you will see player number indicators over the heads of human-controlled monsters. Wiggle the right thumbstick back and forth any time you want to see your indicator. Or, just stand in place for a few seconds and it will appear.

MAIN MENU

Use the left thumbstick or directional pad to move through the Main Menu. Press the A button or START button to confirm a selection. Press the B button or BACK button to cancel a selection and return to a previous menu.

Get Updates

This menu option appears when there is new Downloadable Content available for Godzilla: Destroy All Monsters Melee. To use this feature, you must be connected to Xbox Live (see page 4, "Connect to Xbox Live," for additional details).

Note: Downloadable Content may not be available for some users in some regions.

Versus Mode (1 or 2 Players)

Go head-to-head against a single monster (1 player) or battle a friend (2 players). You can set the number of rounds and the length of each round in the Options menu. To win a round, you must KO (Knock Out) your opponent, or have the most health remaining when time runs out. After a Versus Mode battle, you have the option to fight again.

Adventure Mode (1 Player)

In Adventure Mode, choose your monster and head into battle against up to eight monsters, one at a time. The goal is to defeat all of the monsters and stop the Vortaak. Each battle takes place in a different location. To win a round, KO your opponent. The Clock is shown at the top center of the screen.

Continue

If you lose a battle, you may choose to continue. In Easy mode (see page 13, "Gameplay") you have infinite continues. Medium and Hard modes allow a maximum of three continues. Continues are displayed in the Monster Status HUD.

Survival Mode (1 Player)

Try to KO as many opponents as possible with a single health meter — no Continues. Your score is based on how many monsters you KO before you are defeated, and how quickly you beat them. All of the battles take place in a single arena.

There is a three-minute time limit for each battle. You must KO your opponent before time runs out, or the game is over. The timer resets for each fight. The Results Screen is shown at the end of each fight. Press the A button or START button to proceed to the next opponent.

You get 500 points for each win, plus a Time Bonus for defeating an opponent quickly. Your health bar is replenished after each fight, but the amount of health you get diminishes as you progress through the battles.

Melee Mode (1 to 4 Players)

A Melee is a free-for-all battle between two to four monsters. Your opponents can be humans or COM (computer-controlled) monsters. Player 1 chooses the COM monsters. KO'd monsters respawn with full health and energy.

The player with the highest point total at the end of each round wins that round. Points are awarded for knockdowns, KO's, Style Bonus (attack combos) and Health Points. The player who wins the set number of rounds or has the most points at the end of a KO-a-thon is declared the Melee champ.

Team Battle (1 to 4 Players)

Team Battles are Melee battles in which monsters are divided into red and blue teams. Three or four monsters are required for a Team Battle. You can choose any combination of human and COM opponents. Player 1 chooses the COM monsters and team colors.

Although it's possible to strike your teammate, you are not awarded points for doing so. Instead, concentrate your attacks on opposing team members to increase your score. At the end of the round, the points for each team member are totaled for the final team score. During a Team Battle, your weapons do not lock onto your teammates at close range as they do with opponents.

Destruction Mode (1 to 4 Players)

Destroy buildings to increase your score in Destruction Mode. You can play by yourself or against human opponents. You can play either one round and adjust the time limit in the Options menu, or you can play a set number of two-minute rounds similar to Melee Mode.

Every structure in a city is destructible and has a Destruction Point value. Large buildings offer more Destruction Points, but are more difficult to topple. Small buildings are easily destroyed but offer fewer points. When a building is destroyed, a number representing the point value rises up from the dust.

Destroy a building completely to score points. The player delivering the final blow to the building gets the points. So, watch out for other monsters looking to take points by toppling a building you've been pummeling. You can still KO opponents in Destruction Mode, which is especially helpful for dealing with "point-stealers." KO'd monsters respawn with full health and energy after a short time.

HINTS AND TIPS

- The Monsters in Godzilla: Destroy All Monsters Melee are all unique. You must practice with each monster to find its strengths and weaknesses. All of the monsters can be powerhouses when played to their full potential.
- Learning when to run and when to walk is a key strategy to master. Running monsters move much faster, but cannot grab opponents or fire their weapons. Press the left trigger or click the left thumbstick to run.
- Attacks can deal edged, blunt or energy damage. Learn to recognize the different types of attacks by the uniquely colored flashes they create on impact. Each monster reacts differently to each of the three damage types, so experiment!
- All monsters have special attacks not listed in their printed move lists, so experiment with different button combinations and thumbstick positions. Try attacking while in mid-jump, or when an opponent is behind you.
- Avoiding attacks is often the best way to survive. Use ducks and jumps to avoid attacks entirely if possible, and seek shelter to avoid energy strikes.
- All blocks have a counter — remember to use sweeps, energy attacks and overhead strikes if you face an opponent who is adept at blocking.
- If you grab while ducking, you will try to pick up buildings, even when very near another monster.
- Monsters that are off the ground cannot be grabbed. Sometimes jumping/flying is the best way to avoid a grab.
- If your monster is grabbed, mash the attack buttons — you may break free before your opponent has an opportunity to throw you!
- Charging up your primary beam weapon is very important. A small charge will damage opponents only slightly and will interrupt some attacks. A 50% charge or more will interrupt any attack, and knock monsters out of the air. A 100% charge will knock your opponents down and deliver MASSIVE damage.
- Energy weapons can be very powerful, especially when you're on the receiving end. Remember that blocking monsters, or monsters lying prone on the ground, take only half damage from energy attacks.

- To auto-target enemies in the air, press and hold the right trigger while firing your primary weapon. Use the right thumbstick to override auto-targeting.
- Try using the right thumbstick to move your monster's head around, even when not firing a weapon.
- When in Rage Mode, monsters deal 120% normal damage. They also deal additional knockback power with every strike. This is especially significant in Melee Mode, in which knock-downs score points!
- The human military (Tanks, Helicopters, Freeze Tanks) will attack the monster that has inflicted the most damage on the city. Some buildings cause more damage when destroyed, so play in Destruction Mode to find out which buildings will make the military come running the fastest.
- The Vortaak (the alien enemies in the game) have constructed green containment fences around the perimeter of each arena. These energy barriers will not cause damage to your monster, but they can be used to corner an opponent and chain multiple attacks for increased damage.
- Hedorah™, the smog monster, appears randomly in human cities, and will dramatically reduce your energy regeneration rate. Shoot down Hedorah™ to eliminate his poisonous effects.
